

Project Title

Canadian Consortium on Child and Youth Trauma

Project Summary

The Canadian Consortium on Child and Youth Trauma is a partnership that began in 2020 that brings together researchers, practitioners, clinicians, and policymakers in Canada to unify and enhance social responses to child and youth trauma.

We began participating in the ‘Journal Watch’ explorations looking at emergent child trauma research. Now Dr. Nathalie Reid will be joining the teaching and training committee.

Project Roles

CTRC - Partner Organization

Dr. Lise Milne - Co-Investigator

Project Partners

Dr. Delphine Collin-Vézina: McGill Centre for Research on Children and Families

Project Funding

The Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council: Partnership Grant